What Church People Are Saying and Doing

Bishop Hardins has sent out a letter to every priest in the diocese of Washington last general convention that a nation-aids preaching mission should be held this year. The last convention of the diocese authorized the hubbas to appoint a committee to undertake arrangements for a mission this winter. The conmittee thus appointed has determined to a range for the mission to be held from the first Sunday in Lent. March 12, to the third Sunday in Lent. March 26, 1916, inclusive. It is planned to have mission services at certain churches which are central in each great division of the

The Memorial Church of All Angels, Twilight Park, in the southern section of the Catskills, a beautiful stone struture of the Black Forest 1372 has been much improved this summer by the addition of a fine stone tower and a bell, says the Living Church. The former is in memory of Bishop Satterlee, whose summer home was here, and who was the founder and first paster of this con-gregation. The bell is in memory of his kinsman, Walter Livingsione Satterlee, one of the numerous attists whose homes and inspirations were centered in this beautiful hill country. Both are the gift of one of their life-long friends. For the dedication on the sixth Sunday after Trinity, Mrs. Henry Y. Satterlee and her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Rhine-lander, were joined at Twilight Park by numerous friends of Bishop Satterlee, and the church was crowded with the regular worshippers and many cottages of other Christian bodies, as well as some of the natives of the section, who greatly loved this good friend and adviser, Dr. The service, under authority of the Last season one school department in the Bronx, consisting of pupils to the number of 1,600, dismissed the children for a period of 80 minutes, three times a week, sending them to the churches of their parents to be instruct-ed by their ministers or priests. It is reported to have worked so satisfactory that the scheme is to be continued on a larger scale the coming school year. The latest word concerning Dr. Clark's condition is that for several days past there has been gain almost imperceptible from day to day, but a continuing gain.

American Methodists have begun ampaign, the object of which is to secure a net gain of 25,000 members for their church in one year. Their remethods to be used include, for every Methodist church in the country: At least once every Sunday a public invitation to people to join; the special observance of holy week; a special campaign at Easter.

It will be interdenominational in character and will form part of the teaching equipment of Kwansei Ga-kuin. Friends and co-workers of Dr. Hamill, since his death, have decided that this shall be a memorial to him and the building has been planned for that purpose.

The second Sunday in September has been designated by a number of organizations as the Day of Prayer for public schools. In view of the great number of schools and pupils which we have in our public school system, this day assumes large significance. In 1913 over nineteen million children were listed as attending public schools of all kinds in the United States The elementary grades contained 17,200,000 the secondary grades, including high schools and preparatory departments of higher institutions, contained about 1,500,000, while public universities and colleges contained about $0.000. 1912 the average daily attendance was 13,300,000, which was 73 per cent of the total enrollment. The total number of teachers was 547,289, and the estimated value of all public school property was about $1,256,000,000.

The Methodist-Congregationalist-Presbyterian merger in Canada seems to have gained impetus from the unity of feeling produced by the war. The Presbyterian General Assembly recently favored it 368 votes to 74, and the other two denominations are already committed to it. The governing argument for union has been its necessity in order to Christianize the population which is streaming into the vast western demain of Canada.
